

PLACEMENT

15th June - 30th June 2010

Placement shall be organised upon completion of this programme. It is difficult to advance any firm assurance on career enhancement as this would be individualistic. However, a significant value addition to the careers of graduating students is expected.

ACCREDITATION

Kindly note that RIAM has not sought any approval or accreditation from any of the Academic Institution, UGC, or Distance Education Council. We believe that higher education has two essential purposes, a) better career growth and b) self development. Considering our background and the profile of associated individuals with this venture, we appreciate the responsibility and commitment required to deliver results that are meaningful to participants and therefore no efforts are being made for its approval or accreditation from any organisation. We are committed to retain the service standards exhibited by ruralnaukri.com. Participants to this programme take admission at their own risk on the assessed utility of this programme to their career and the management does not hold any legal responsibility.
